Dear Parents and Carers,

May is here!

We've had a fantastic week at school, despite the return of some colder weather at the start of the week – we ended with glorious sunshine.

On Monday, Blackman Class had a phenomenal trip to the Black Country Museum, where they stepped back in time to explore life in the Victorian era. The children visited old-fashioned shops, experienced a very strict Victorian school lesson, and even enjoyed a ride on one of the traditional fairground attractions. What an incredible day it was!

Wednesday brought sporting success as our tennis team competed against the Partnership schools - and won! The pupils demonstrated impeccable behaviour throughout, alongside outstanding sportsmanship. We are very proud of them.

On Thursday, Rosen Class enjoyed an exciting visit to Birmingham Aquarium to enhance their learning for their topic, Blue Abyss. It was a truly engaging day that brought their studies to life seeing how ocean creatures live alongside one another and how they've adapted and evolved. The children were so respectful and it was a real pleasure to join them.

Looking ahead to next week, we are delighted to be welcoming four of our former pupils back to school for their work experience placements. I very much look forward to seeing them again and hearing about their journeys since leaving us.

Wishing everyone a wonderful Bank Holiday weekend - here's hoping for some BBQ weather!

Rhiannon Abberley, Headteacher - Be kind, be curious, be you!
