Dear Parents and Carers,

This week has absolutely flown by, and it has been lovely to finally see the sun make an appearance!

I am pleased to share that I have now completed my moderation training for the county. This means I am able to support other Year 6 teachers with their writing assessments, which is a fantastic opportunity to collaborate and share best practice.

Mrs Kelly and I also had the chance to visit the Everdon site ahead of Rosen Class's upcoming two-day residential. It looks incredible, and we are both very excited as the countdown begins! Please keep an eye out for details regarding the imminent parent meeting.

In addition, I visited another school this week to explore how they structure their playtimes. We are always looking for ways to enhance our children's outdoor experiences, and with our new Astro and wooden structures already in place, the next step is to introduce more 'loose parts' equipment to encourage creativity and imaginative play.

Looking ahead to next week, we have a very busy and exciting schedule. Blackman Class will be visiting the Black Country Museum, while Rosen Class will be taking part in the U9 Tennis Tournament and visiting Birmingham Aquarium.

What a week to look forward to!

Enjoy your weekend and let's hope it's a sunny one.

Rhiannon Abberley, Headteacher - Be kind, be curious, be you!
