18th November 2022

Dear Parents and Carers

As the Autumn term progresses the school has been busy with activities including our Remembrance Service, a Diwali workshop and the House Points Winners tea party. As you can see there from today's newsletter there are lots special days coming up for the children to enjoy, alongside their learning and hard work in lessons.

Wishing you all a wonderful weekend.

Children in Need

Children in Need - Crazy Hair Day

The children joined in with the fun of Children in Need today with their crazy hair styles. Thank you for your donations on Sco-Pay.

Odd Socks Anti-bullying Day

We started the week with Odd Socks Day. In assembly, we explained what bullying is, and children were encouraged to always 'reach 'out' and tell an adult if they feel they are being bullied or if they see someone being bullied.

Christmas Jumper Day

On 8th December we will be supporting Christmas Jumper Day. Please don't buy new jumpers for the day. Jumpers from previous years or jumpers that are decorated at home can be worn.

Attendance

A reminder for parents that every planned absence from school requires the completion of an absence form, including for medical appointments. Holidays will always be marked as an unauthorised absence.

Reception Places

If you are looking for a place for your 3 or 4 year old for September 2023, the deadline for applications is 15 January 2023. We are showing parents around this term. Please get in touch with the office if you would like to arrange a visit. We still have a few places for this academic year for any families looking for now.

Road Safety Awareness Week: 14 to 18 Nov

The annual campaign to improve the safety on roads has taken place this week. Please do take this as an opportunity to remind your children of your family's road safety rules, especially if you have older children who are learning to cross roads by themselves.

Christmas Lunch

Mrs Dalgarno sent out details about the Christmas Lunch that will take place on 19 Dec. Christmas Lunch is always a lovely festive occasion in school so please make sure you book a lunch for your child by 1 December, if you wish to.
